Opening Hours:

Operating Days 2009 Weather permitting trains will run every day from late-March to the first week of November. From March to early May trains will terminate at either Clogwyn or Rocky Valley (subject to winter weather conditions). The Summit Station is the usual destination between early May and the end of October. Trains may be operated by steam or diesel traction.

Tickets please The Ticket Office at Llanberis Station opens daily during the season at 8:15am. Tickets can also be purchased by telephone in advance of the day of travel with a credit/debit card.

*Telephone bookings are subject to a £3.50 administration charge per booking but cannot be made on the day of travel.

Tickets are non-transferable or refundable so please check the weather forecast before making a booking. Single tickets Single tickets can be purchased in advance for the journey up Snowdon.

Descent single tickets are only sold on a standby basis from the Summit. Departure times The first departure from Llanberis is generally scheduled for 9am, with later trains running at frequent intervals subject to passenger demand. Journey duration The duration of the return journey to the Summit Station takes 2½ hours which includes a 30 minute stop at the peak.

When the train terminates at Clogwyn Station the return journey is 2 hours. The return journey to Rocky Valley is 1 hour 30 minutes. Dogs and Luggage Only officially registered support dogs can be allowed on trains and bulky luggage cannot be carried.

Car Parking There is a pay and display car park situated at the rear of Llanberis Station. Disabled passengers requiring the wheelchair accessible carriage are asked to telephone in advance to discuss their particular requirements. Click here to find out more information on our disabled access
