
Maiden Castle Iron Age Hill Fort Dorset

Historic Buildings and Monuments

The largest and most complex Iron Age hill fort in Britain.

Opening Hours:

Access to the site is by a short but steep trail to the right of the car park, which leads you through the original Iron Age entrance to the hill fort. Another trail takes you across the hill fort defences and involves some steps. The top of the hill fort is grass but surfaces can be irregular, with some low vegetation. Visitors should exercise caution as there are many steep banks and deep ditches.
