About Bembridge and Isle of Wight

The popular village of Bembridge is situated on the most eastern point of the Isle of Wight. Bembridge is considered to be one of the most upmarket areas on the island and offers a surprisingly busy intertidal sheltered harbour, which is always full of pleasure crafts and fishing boats. From the harbour you will find quiet beaches consisting of sand and pebbles, perfect for swimming, beachcombing and crabbing. As you walk along Bembridge beach, you will discover the lifeboat station, cafés and the famous Crab & Lobster Inn, as well as the magnificent Culver Cliffs as your backdrop. The village centre offers a good range of small shops and an award-winning butcher's.
