About Leek and Bedfordshire

Leek is a market town which is often known as "The Queen of the Moorlands” as it rests on the western side of The Peaks, just 15 miles away from Ashbourne. Within the town you will find a magnitude of amenities and stunning examples of Victorian architecture influenced by William Morris. You will also find a selection of shops, including vast antique emporiums, a good selection of restaurants, a local park and leisure facilities and real ale pubs.
