About Beguildy and Powys

The small village of Beguildy sits amongst peaceful countryside on the edge of the Welsh/English border. Surrounded by green landscapes, the village hosts a public house serving good food, a shop and a Post Office for daily essentials. There is fantastic access for those who wish to explore Beacon Hill, plus a 5 mile route for keen horse riders can be reached on the nearby, beautiful Glyndwr's Way National Trail. A wonderful base for exploring mid Wales and the Shropshire Hills.
