About Weobley and Herefordshire

Weobley is a large village and civil parish resting in Herefordshire, England. Once a market town, the village has since gained the title of one of the country's black and white villages. It offers a supermarket and a small choice of pubs and restaurants for your amenities, as well as resting within driving distance to market town of Leominster and the city of Hereford for a larger choice and many tourist attractions. A fantastic break for all awaits at this charming village.
