About Millington and East Yorkshire

Millington is a small village and civil parish located near the Yorkshire Wolds in the East Riding of Yorkshire. This area is home to some of the UK's finest stately homes and many other historic attractions. Two miles away to the north east of Pocklington which is best known for Burnby Hall Gardens - 8 acres of gloriously beautiful gardens with two large lakes which are home to the National Collection of water lilies. City of Hull is our newest City of Culture and highly recommended is a visit to The Deep one of the UK's biggest and best aquariums. 16 miles away from the historic city of York with an array of attractions including the Minster, its medieval walls, boat trips on the River Ouse, York Races, museums (including the famous National Railway Museum and the Castle Museum), and the internationally-renowned Jorvik Viking Centre and its "time trip" experience. Explore York's quaint streets and hidden corners, or take an excursion further afield to the Dales, Moors or the coastal resorts of Scarborough, Whitby and Filey.
