About Pittenweem and Fife

The village of Pittenweem is one of the busiest fishing ports along the East Neuk of Fife and, as such, is a popular attraction for tourists. Its delightful harbour is surrounded by inns and restored traditional buildings, which all add to its charm. The village centre sits a few streets back from the shore and boasts a shop, bakers, a Post Office and a café, plus several bars, restaurants and galleries. With St Andrews and Edinburgh easily accessible, there is so much for the visitor to enjoy.
