About Forres and Moray Region

Situated above the Cairngorms National Park and close to the coast is one of Scotland's oldest small towns, Forres. Sitting north-east from Inverness, Forres makes a lovely location to enjoy on a break to Scotland with a great selection of shops and pubs to choose from, as well as being near some beautiful coastline as well as countryside. Discover the smattering of quaint fishing villages along the coast, or head to one of the two distilleries on the Malt Whiskey Trail right there in Forres.
