Foyers is a pretty highland village situated on the quiet eastern banks of Loch Ness! The village itself boasts a village shop and post office along with a friendly cafe. Foyers is perhaps most famous for its spectacular 140ft waterfall known as the Falls of Foyers where the River Foyers drops into a gorge leading into Loch Ness. The road from Inverness into Foyers can be continued through the village and along this quieter side of the famous Loch and eventually you will arrive in the busier village of Fort Augustus which has some nice shops and restaurants.
