About Chinley and Derbyshire

On the western edge of the Peak District lies the village of Chinley in a rural setting. This area is popular for keen walkers who appreciate the proximity to Kinder Scout, a national nature reserve, with easier walks available to find for a family stroll. The village has several pubs, shops and cafes so you will find everything you need in close reach. A short drive away will bring you to villages such as Chapel-en-le-Frith, Whaley Bridge, or further up to Castleton and the spa town of Buxton. Chinley is a great central location which will help you see the best of the Peak District.
