About Easingwold and North Yorkshire

This market town lies within the Vale of York between the City and the Hambleton Hills, on the edge of the North York Moors National Park. It is a perfect introduction to Herriot Country. The town's centre boasts a large market square surrounded by Georgian buildings. There are village greens with flowers and seats, and a selection of shops, pubs and cafes. There is also a community centre with a fitness suite. Close by are many villages and lanes making it ideal for cycling. York, Ripon, Harrogate and Knaresborough and Yorkshire's old famous abbey sites are all within easy reach.
