About Gillamoor and North Yorkshire

The village of Gillamoor rests approximately three miles north of Kirkbymoorside on the edge of the North York Moors National Park. It nestles on the flat top of one of the tabular hills featuring a National Trail for walking. Just to the left of the village church is Gillamoor's 'Surprise View', built right on the edge of a moorland escarpment. After a long walk through the countryside and looking for a spot to relax, head into The Royal Oak Inn which is a Grade II listed building and has been part of the village community since the mid-seventeenth century, offering cuisine cooked to order. Gillamoor is the place to be for anyone seeking a quiet spot in the North Yorkshire countryside, whilst the city of York is within easy driving distance.
